

IN A TIGHT PLACE

CHAMBERLAIN BETWEEN TWO FIRES ON THE IRISH QUESTION.

The Radical Union Opposing Matthews' Re-Election—Arnold on the Attitude of Americans on Gladstone's Home Rule Policy—As Ill-Fated Yachting Party — Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.
London, August 6.—After a consideration of Hartington's speech yesterday the conversation of members who have returned to town goes to show that there is little clearing up in the chaos of the parties. Chamberlain has declared that he will not act upon any subject which might have the effect of returning Gladstone to power, so long as the latter remains unchanged on the Irish question. This is a characteristic witness Radicalism when it meets with the question coming from Chamberlain cannot vote against it except at the risk of stultifying himself, nor vote for it without helping Gladstone's return to power. Hartington announces that the Unionists will not help the Liberals to force a premature expression of their Irish policy from the Conservatives. On the other hand

CHAMBERLAIN'S NEW CAUCUS.
The so-called Radical Union, having decided to support Alderman Cook, Home Ruler against Henry Matthews, who is seeking re-election for the same office, has accepted his appointment to the Home Office. In the face of such a contradiction, no one knows what to expect.

The following paragraph summarizes Matthew Arnold's experiences of American views about Gladstone, as recorded in a long letter to the Times this morning. Arnold deals first with Gladstone's statement that the civilized world is in his favor. "This," says Arnold "would be important if it were not that in that no one could be the unanimity in his favor abroad than in the United States. Yet even here, if you weigh opinions instead of counting them, the balance of opinion is against Gladstone's Irish policy. Wherever you meet with a man of high intelligence and wide knowledge you will almost certainly find him a believer in the wisdom of GLADSTONE'S IRISH POLICY.

'I admire Gladstone; he will probably say; but he is making a mistake in Ireland.' I have myself found but one staunch supporter here of Gladstone's Irish policy whom I would call a man of high intelligence and wide knowledge, Godkin, the well-known editor of the Evening Post and the Nation. Godkin is an Irishman. With the general American people the main motive is the temptation to do the Irish pleasure safely and easily. The reason is that of the general public who yield to this temptation. It is that of men who resist, who look deeper into the matter. Of these serious people, in America opinion is, I repeat it, against Gladstone. I strongly suspect the same thing is true of the rest of the civilized world also.'

The American flag flies in London, half mast high, to-day for Tilden.

England.

THE UNIONISTS' MEETING.
LONDON, August 6.—The Standard commenting on the meeting of Unionists yesterday says that Lord Hartington's language is all that the Conservatives have a right to expect. There is little doubt, it says, that as long as Lord Hartington continues of the same mind, home rule for Ireland is an impossibility. He still seems to dream of reuniting the scattered hostile Liberal sections instead of looking to a new division of party lines. The meeting was the latest effort of public opinion. This, to our judgment, is the only weak point in his conception of the present crisis.

A MINISTER MULTICLED.
The Rev. Mr. Finlayson, the organizing secretary of the Colonial Church Society (Established Church) was to-day condemned to pay $1,000 damages to a Mr. Cook, a socialist named Cookson, in a divorce suit brought by the latter against his wife, on the ground of adultery with Finlayson. Cookson was also given a decree of divorce against his wife.

THE CROWD DIVORCE.
The decree of divorce obtained by Mr. Donald Cookson, a socialist, against his wife because of relations with Sir Charles Dilke, was to-day declared absolute.

Germany.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S FLORAL TRIBUTE.
LONDON, August 6.—The Queen has sent a beautiful laurel wreath to Breteuil to be placed on the tomb of Abe Litz.

SOCIALISTIC HEADQUARTERS RAIDED.

The police of this city last night raided a cellar much frequented by Socialists while a socialistic meeting was held there. The cellar was broken up, and the cellar searched. The search revealed the fact that the place was rendezvous of Socialists of the most extreme class. Documents were found showing the existence of a secret society which had ramifications throughout Germany. Holzhausen, the leader of the secret organization, in Germany was the cellar raided. Subscription lists, accounts and letters were seized. The raid gave a clew to a large portion of the membership of the organization. The discoveries made were such that the police, in arresting eight of the Socialists who were in the cellar when the officers made their raid.

ATTEMPTED GRAVE ROBBERY.

MONTRAL, August 6.—In December, 1884, George K. Fosser, one of the wealthiest residents of Richmond, Quebec, died, leaving a fortune of $1,500,000. A few days ago an attempt was made by unknown persons to steal the body. A coroner's inquest was held yesterday. They were last reported to be at Southampton on Saturday last, and are supposed to be in London now.

THREE BODIES RECOVERED.

The tug International returned this morning with the bodies of the three missing yachtsmen, and left immediately for New York. The other three, two of the bodies were to the south when found. Yesterday the body of Alexander T. Teifer, manager of the Port Franks, on the Canadian shore of Lake Huron, forty miles from here, at the mouth of the Ausable river, was recovered. They were those of T. A. Teifer, manager of the bank of London at Walford; Wm. Vidal, state senator of Ontario; Senator J. H. Mackenzie, and Hope Mackenzie, a nephew of Hon. Alex. Mackenzie. The three still missing are Wm. J. Sinclair, secretary of the West Lambton Reform Association, and Lemuel M. Dierkes, a lawyer of London, Ontario. Mackenzie. The party had left Sarnia about four weeks ago, for a northern cruise on Lake Huron. They were last seen at the clipper ship Monrovia on Saturday. They were expected to be in Sarnia, and nothing having been heard from them, there was in search of them yesterday with the above result.

South America.

FIGHTING OVER SARAH BERNHARDT.
BUENOS AIRES, via GALVESTON, August 6.—Sarah Bernhardt continues to receive great ovations from the public. The theater is crowded every night. The French and Italian newspapers, which have been engaged in a fierce dispute relative to the artistic merits of Sarah Bernhardt, made some very unusual disclosures yesterday, which will be of great interest. The result was a duel between Senator Cerutti and Husser, both of whom were wounded. It is reported that more duels will follow.

Burnham.

POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONFUSION.
London, August 6.—The state of affairs in Burnham is and has been ever since the British occupation one of political discord and social confusion. In consequence of this the British government in India has decided to intrust the supreme command in Burnham to Major-General Sir Herbert Macpherson, Commander-in-Chief of the Indian Army. He will be sent into the country as soon as the cold season commences, to scour it and drive out or subdue the insurgents, and to add his military skill will be sent from India to maintain order.

France.

THE PANAMA CANAL BONDS.

PARIS, August 6.—A hundred and fifty new subscribers have applied for new bonds issued by the Panama Canal Company. The number has exceeded the most sanguine hopes of the company.

THE PROVIDENT BANK.

The Receiver and His Attorney Take Trip Toward Canada—A Pool Offer.

The mystery of the Provident Savings Bank failure deepens. To-day everybody wants to know where Receiver Thompson had gone. Those who earnestly sought an answer to the question at the Bank of Commerce were told without hesitation or evocation that the receiver had gone to the whereabouts of Judge Adams, the attorney for the receiver, made at that gentleman's office, was answered "Judge Adams is not in the city."

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at which the trial of the receiver will begin.

It is desired that all delegates shall attend the convention, as far as possible, on the first State convention held in Missouri for twenty years. A similar question as to whether the delegates of the Democratic convention will accommodate the members of the various parishes and drawing rooms with the missing casings. The departure of Receiver Thompson and his attorney, Judge Adams, seems to indicate that the receiver, in his efforts to get a pool, has not been successful.

At Judge Wm. C. Jones' office, where the committee-room will be opened on Tuesday morning, the time at

JEN, POOL!

At POLACK'S
$1.50 At POLACK'S
25 cents.
Waists 25 cents.

K'S
ITS TEMPLAR
Pocket Guide
TO THE
City of St. Louis,

A beautiful little book, containing many items of interest to visitors. Also, illustrations and a full description of our ENTHUSIAST stock of Knights Templar Jewels with prices, etc., mailed free to all who wish it.

E. JACQUARD
JEWELRY CO.,
307 N. 4th st., St. Louis,
K. T. Cards with name rank for $1.50. Send for samples.

ES FOR COURSHIP.

Young Men in Love Should Carefully Study.

For Mall.

In the girl's father in politics
her in religion.

She has one eye on him;
lower keep two eyes on him;
too much sweet stuff on paper;

you will find her in after years; she has some especial attraction upon the most select known to a married man.

at a reasonable hour in the Don't wait until she has to use soul into a yawn that she will be a bore. A little that may cause a coolness at the occasion of your first call the moment you have seen your lady loves like an iceberg and cold wave, take your leave away. Woman in her husband is uncertain, coy, and hard weather, finish saying good-house. Don't stretch it all the front gate and thus lay the

for future asthma, bronchitis,

and chronic catarrh, to help

the girl to death after she has

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

and she is not likely to be able to

to use a hard-headed parent-

unfriendly kind to her, to

the extent of the cold.

about your financial condition.

annoying to a bride who has

her herself a life of luxury in her

St. Louis Post-Dispatch
PUBLISHED BY
THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

[Entered at the Post Office at St. Louis, Mo.,
as second-class mail matter.]

TERMS OF THE DAILY.

One year, postage paid.....	$6.00
Six months.....	4.50
Three months.....	2.25
One month.....	.85
One month (delivered by carrier).....	.65
By the week (delivered by carrier).....	.15

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.

One year, postage paid.....	$1.00
Six months, postage paid.....	.60

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
515 and 517 MARKET STREET.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms.....
Business Office.....

FRIDAY, AUGUST 6, 1886.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND's recent manifesto against officeholding politicians reads well, but it is not self-enforcing.

PUBLIC sentiment in the United States holds that Mexico is not worth whipping, but that American citizenship is worth protecting.

There was a certain amount of public business left unfinished at the adjournment of Congress yesterday; among other things, the protection of the national hoard.

If, as BEN BUTLER says, the fights among Democrats are like the fights among cats, there will be a large increase in the St. Louis Democratic family after the primaries.

The Chicago anarchists would like to have it appear that the Haymarket meeting, at which the murderous bomb-throwing was done, was held for the purpose of conducting a prayer-meeting.

Our dispatches this morning say that it is the intention of President Diaz to pardon Mr. CUTTING as soon as he is convicted. That would not be a compliance with the request of Secretary BAYARD.

MR. BLAINE is singularly silent about the troubles on our Southwestern border. The great codfish warrior is not disturbed by the kidnaping of a man from a State with an immovable Democratic majority.

The Irish elephant which the Tories have acquired assumes larger proportions every day. The question of evictions and unpaid rents will severely tax the statesmanship and sagacity of the Salisbury Cabinet.

The new extradition treaty with Great Britain goes over to the next session of Congress for consideration. Cashiers with bilboops in their minds should make a note of this and act promptly; next year it may be too late.

BERT HARTZ asks in one of his poems: "Don't you know Flynn? Flynn of Virginia?" It is the present FLYNN of New York about whom the question is asked, it may be answered that he is very well known, and that his reputation is extending every day.

The Municipal officials of Cincinnati have been following the example of the St. Louis Delegates, and getting drunk while attempting to discharge their duties. The leading papers of the city have denounced their scandalous conduct, but up to date there has been no retaliatory expulsion of reporters. If these bilious officials should ever be worried with indictments, they should engage the merry Prosecuting Attorney of St. Louis to prosecute them. The time seems to have come when the cap and bells of the legal jester weigh heavily in the scales of justice.

WHILE SENATOR LOGAN is taking care of California, ex-Union soldiers have been attending the ex-Confederate reunion at Waco, Tex., and the Kansas Democrats have nominated a colored man for State Auditor. "When the cat is away the mice will play;" and if Black Jack doesn't wave the old shirt and sound his war-whoop more diligently, he will find his game spoiled at various points of the compass. Eternal vigilance is the price of sectional hate, and even when such a price is paid, one is not always sure of getting the article.

It is asserted that the Republicans think they will have plenty to talk about in the pending campaign in reviewing the mistakes of the session and the bad appointments of the President. It is hoped that they will thoroughly discuss the subject, especially the matter of bad appointments. They might also gratify a very lively public curiosity by explaining why the Senate usually confined its rejections to good appointments and confirmed with hasty acclamation the worst and most scandalous ones which it was called upon to consider. The subject opens up a field of explanation which will enable Republican campaign orators to exercise their acknowledged talent for smoothing down ugly appearances.

SENATOR ESCOBAR, the Mexican Consul at El Paso, shows himself to be something of a humorist in discussing the Cutting affair. "You know," says he, "we do not rush through a trial like your American courts." He might have added that when it suits their convenience, they hang or shoot a man without any trial at all, as was done in the Rasures case, in which the doomed man was not lynched, but was shot by the order of a Mexican official without even the form of a trial. In referring to Mr. BAYARD's demand for CUTTING's release, the same consul says: "The idea of one civilized and enlightened Government making such unreasonable and preposterous demands of another equally intelligent republic is in my mind simply preposterous." The idea of referring to the United States and Mexico as "equally intelligent republics" is worthy of the playful sarcasm of Artemus Ward.

CASES IN POINT.

On the 22d of June, 1877, President BAYARD tickled the mugwumps of all parties by issuing his famous "General Order," the opening sentence of which was the following:

Resolved, That looking alone to the interest of our country and both races inhabiting it, we do in solemn and terrible earnestness resolve to carry said election for the cause of Prohibition.

2. We hereby announce that we will never stand idly by and see white men vote on in this county by the negro voters who have espoused the cause of whisky and the masses of misguided colored voters of said county.

This means that the Prohibitionists of Hinds County are ready to carry the election by fair or foul means. The language of their resolutions does not admit of any other interpretation. It will be noted, also, that their action confirms what was said in these columns a few days ago in reference to their hostility to a free exercise of the ballot by the negro voters who are opposed to prohibition.

It is just as well to dismiss the idea of war with Mexico. There can be no war with Mexico because Mexico cannot stand up long enough to be knocked down. Mexico has nominally an army of 25,000 men, but an army of 25,000 men is simply no army at all, and Mexico has neither cash nor credit nor any resources of any kind with which to raise an army or to carry on war. Nowhere on the face of the earth can we find a nation of ten millions of people so utterly unable to comply with the conditions of modern warfare as Mexico is. It is even more helpless now than it was forty years ago, and, in case of hostilities, our occupation of that country would be practically unresisted.

In his circular "To the Heads of Departments in the Service of the General Government," dated from the "Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., July 14, 1886," President CLEVELAND says:

I deem it a proper time to again warn our friends in the various departments and all officeholders under the General Government, against the use of their official positions in attempts to control political movements in their localities.

The scandalous spectacle of Democratic officeholders swarming in and manipulating Democratic conventions in utter contempt of the President's proclamation and without rebuke from him, has since been so common, so invariably the rule everywhere, as to stamp the July document as one, in their opinion, issued a la Hayes, to be read with a wink and understood in a Pickwickian sense.

At the recent meeting of the State Democratic Committee of Missouri the holder of the best Federal office in the State was not only present as a member to assume the active conduct of political campaigns, but made a desperate attempt in his peculiar way to reorganize the committee, and would have ousted Secretary MAYO on the utterly false charge of pocketing certain moneys if Mayo had not been able to produce a receipt for the same signed by Mr. LANCASTER's own son.

The manipulation of primary meetings and nominating conventions by the man whom Mr. CLEVELAND has made Collector of the port of St. Louis is not only "indecent and unfair" and wanting in "proper regard for the proprieties and requirements of official place," but it was exceedingly offensive and a menace to the harmony and decency of the Democratic party before he became an officeholder.

Yet he is now assuming the role of a boss over all St. Louis nominations, and proposes to figure as the chief manipulator of the Democratic State Convention which meets here on the 19th. What can the public think of that of July proclamation when they see its author sustaining such officeholders in such work as is synonymous herewith the name of LANCASTER?

AN AMERICAN IDEA.

There is a general feeling among Americans that there would be something unusual in our punishing Mexico, no matter how gross the provocation might be. The great disproportion between the two countries gives such a proceeding an appearance of brutality which is repugnant to the American sense of justice.

Such a sentiment reflects the highest credit on the nation which entertains it. It is a sentiment in which we stand among the powers of the earth.

The history of Europe for fifty years has been a history of bullying and terrorizing, of annexation, conquest, tribute and other forms of robbery practiced by the strong nations upon the weak.

No such sentiment has prevented Great Britain from annexing Cyprus and Burmah. Prussia has made war upon little Schleswig-Holstein. France has fought against Madagascar and Tonquin, and annexed Nioe and Savoy. Russia has slaughtered Turcoomans and Turks. Even free Italy plants the banner of foreign conquest in Massowah.

The United States is the only sovereign nation which does not covet Nabor's vineyard, and is ashamed to despise a defenseless neighbor.

SENATOR EDMUNDS says the Democrats are responsible for the defeat of legislation regulating railroads, because the House refused to pass the Culom bill. The other side can, of course, retort, that the Republicans are responsible because the Senate has for years refused to pass the Reagan bill, though the House sends it to the Senate every year by a large majority. Still, it is true that the Culom bill is better than nothing, and that the House has probably made a mistake in failing to pass it. Doubtless some of the Senators who voted for it would have voted against it if they had supposed the House willing to accept it as a substitute for the Reagan

bill. Some Congressmen of both houses are covetous of opportunities for posing on the popular side without really doing anything to restrict the range of land-grabbers or the piratical habits of monarchs.

or without issue, before his father, she would have been the sole heiress of the Duke de Montpenier, who is, as the world knows, enormously rich.

such barbarians? And all because the barbarians are erecting a few tall chimneys with other people's money.

ing her, if she was not a woman, pray what

were she.

A YOUNG citizen of Guelph, Canada, going home the other night was followed by a woman to aid her in getting her husband into the house.

The young man complained. He seized the inmate, who was lying on the floor, and on a couch. The tearful woman thanked him warmly, lighted a lamp and screamed.

The drunken man was not her husband. He came home quite sober a few minutes later.

ing her, if she was not a woman, pray what

were she.

The Sweet Pen for Ever.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Communication in the Utica Herald.

I see by the Herald to-day that your correspondent "Rosicrucian" repeats a statement

he made six or seven years ago, to the effect that Cobbett, after taking the exhausted bones of Thomas Paine from America to England, left them in a warehouse at Liverpool, "and no one knows what became of them."

The facts are that Cobbett took the bones to his own home in Farnham, where they remained "stowed away" till after

Cobbett's death in 1835, when his estate, real and personal, went under the hammer. At the sale the box was brought out into the upper hall of the house, no one knowing the contents of the package. On opening it a plate plainly told what was packed underneath.

The auctioneer, on reading the plate, uttered the sweet pen is now fashionable. It has not the gaudy, lime-light beauty of the sunflower, and it lacks the tawdry, clastic togray

of the tiger lily, while a dollar-jerker to the

Jacqueminot road the sweet pea is nowhere, but in its unadulterated reminiscence of the back yard and your first girl, with her hair down her back in two braids, the sweet pea sweeps the deck with a whole royal sequence of the boyish past.

MEN OF MARK.

A GOLDWATER (Mich.) man, 70 years old, who has never tasted meat.

CARL SCHURZ is to be made leading editorial writer on an illustrated paper at Cincinnati.

KASPER WILHELM has accepted the god-fatherhood of the eleventh son of a butcher at Bartram.

DR. NORMAN J. COLMAN, Commissioner of Agriculture, is investigating the resources of Agriculture, to be the hero of a novel which a member of his congregation is writing.

HENRY WARD BECHER is to be the hero of a novel which a member of his congregation is writing.

The Sun says: "In the whole history of rice and harbor legislation the efforts of the people have been a failure, although it was a success in the case of the rice monopoly.

The Sun says: "The Major was at the same time the most popular man in the country, and he was a great favorite.

The Sun says: "The Major was at the

same time the most popular man in the country, and he was a

PADDY RYAN'S ROW

ENDS IN THE DEATH OF MAJ. DURELL, THE WELL-KNOWN WHEELMAN.

The Chicago Club Interviews a Supposed Private Detective—Gaudaur's Remarks Before Leaving for England—Jack Knifton's Record—Sporting News and Ball Talk.

CHICAGO, August 5.—The sudden death of Maj. William M. Durell, a prominent member of the Illinois Division of American Wheelmen and a well known citizen of Chicago, was announced in the local papers yesterday. The cause of death was said to be apoplexy. The Inter-Ocean this morning, commenting on his death, says that although it is true that apoplexy was the cause of death, it was the result of injuries received in a brawl in a saloon much frequented by sporting men, on the South Side, where, on Tuesday evening, several fights occurred between Paddy Ryan, Harrison, "the Unknown," and several others. The article says that the Major was at the saloon at a time when the fighting became general and everybody was embroiled in it. He had been up about 10 o'clock and complained of a severe pain in his head. A physician was called, who made a diagnosis of cerebral hemorrhage. The admission bill will be $20. Tickets can be had of any of the Elks and of Capt. Al Spink and Capt. George C. Quinn, members of the competing clubs. Mr. Henry D. Lucas has very generously donated Union Park for the occasion, and the wheels are turning to make a large number of ladies will be in attendance.

Gossip of the Game.

The Croakers have disbanded for the season, cause too many losses.

How often do we see in the summary the consoling words, "Run earned, none."

The Athletics with all of their reconstructions arrived in town this morning.

The $2,000 expended by the Detroit Club for the big four has already netted them $30,000.

The McLean Bros. have donated the name of the Elks for the Illumination game next Monday.

Bob is a Goode player on the Elks team. He won't be up seriously against the press gang next Monday.

Kearns is getting back to his old batting form, and is doing good work both with the ball and in the field.

The game against the Elks is in trim for the Illumination game next Monday at Union Park. They are laying low for the Elks.

Now you see them and now you don't. The Elks are in the lead again.

Lucas' Illumination game at Union Park.

The Little Beauties have organized and will credit the young amateur clubs. Their manager is W. G. Glynn, and they will play the Croakers next Monday.

The Star Dispatch battery has had the possession of several new curves with which the Elks will have to contend next Monday.

The Major was a gentleman both by birth and education; had a fine record of service, and was a man of great personal worth. The truth is evident that he is not a good politician, but a good man has come out of the session.

THE TIMES.

says: "It would be absurd to oblige the President to give up his office on the eve of adjournment." So far as we know, Ingalls has no right to his behalf as a legislator. He does not represent, as a practical politician, in any sense, except in so far as he went to Mr. Roosevelt and got a bold black letter, "Yes;" I think just what Mr. Grover thought.

THE TIMES.

says: "Republicans await the with curiosity to see if the people will vote of economy as for the Republicans to point to the Congress now more than ever to meet the new fiscal year. Yet, when it is known that the amount or exceed $300,000,000 is spent up from every part of the country, it is not surprising that the revenues have estimated at only $362,545,252. The total deficiency is therefore, $42,000. How is this for a show of financial principles and a Democratic party?"

Inventory Was Mislabeled.

of the Post-Dispatch:

The postmaster of the L. A. W., in which last year Calie Stone won national fame, will probably not run this fall.

The century race in connection with the annual tour of the L. A. W., in which last year Calie Stone won national fame, will probably not run this fall.

While waiting their hopes for the Chicago races, the western and the St. Louis champions would do well to consider this from the Chicago Sporting Journal: "Van Sickle is looking forward to riding much better now than a month ago."

ATHLETES.

At Monmouth Park.

Winners: Handicap sweep, mile, Florence E.; Optional Stakes for 3-year-olds, three-quarters, Laggard; Trenton Stakes for 3-year-olds, mile and an eighth, Calera; Euston Town Stakes for 3-year-olds, mile, Dowd; selling price for 3-year-olds, seven-eighths, Witch.

BETTER THAN TEEMER,

Gaudaur Talks Before Leaving America to Row Boat.

"I think I am now considerably faster than I could two years ago over a three-mile course," said Jake Gaudaur before leaving America. "I have been more careful of myself than most carlemen. I spend most of my time on my place near Creve Coeur Lake, and I do not waste time and energy as some of the fellows do. I can remember when I was not much of an oarsman, and when Hanlan beat me毫不费力地. Buttington and men have improved, but if you show some speed Ned and I get on a good race. You see Ned offers to wages, he sees me row three miles in better than 19 min. 50 sec. Well, perhaps he can do it. He may be in condition to do it, but I have not had time next Thursday for Liverpool, but you rest assured he will be in top form. I am not the man who has been following me. The pitcher's face was laid with red when he did not win his first match.

The century race will be held on Saturday, the 13th, in the afternoon, at the Elks hall, between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

The profits of the trade are not to be under the saloon-keepers steps taken at once.

A committee was appointed to investigate the saloon-keepers of the city, principally dives, schools, saloons, etc., and to ascertain the number of saloon-keepers between sixteen and thirty-four oarsmen each.

Social meetings were held at which it was decided to move on the big beers through the brewers. A protest was prepared and presented to the brewer's committee last evening. The committee of saloon-keepers was composed of Capt. John T. Keeler, Capt. J. H. Ward, Capt. Louis Thiel, John McGuire, Wm. Bussmeyer, Thos. McNamara, L. Kramer, C. Schumacher, and Capt. J. H. Keeler.

After discussing the subject, the Brewers' Association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, By the body of St. Louis and the saloon-keepers, that from and after August 9, they will not sell or supply beer to any of their respective customers who sells a pint of beer for less than 5 cents.

"Jumbo" schooners—the counter threatened to close.

THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Is delivered by Carriers at 15 Cents a week in more than 400 Cities and Towns in the surrounding States.

BANCH OFFICES IN THE CITY.

The following branch offices have been established where Want Advertisements and Subscriptions will be received and where the paper is kept for sale:

BROADWAY, 7031 S.—Waibel's Carondelet
Drug Store.

BROADWAY, 2001 N.—Otto D'Amour, Druggist.

BROADWAY, 3007 S.—Francis Hamm, Prescription Druggist.

BELL AV., 3001—Paul E. Fluet, Drug Store.

BENTON ST., 1501—Otto Sutter, Druggist.

CASS AV., 1837—C. W. Tommehofer, Fine
Drugs.

CHOUTEAU AV., 1500—H. F. A. Spilker,
Druggist.

CHOUTEAU AV., 2837—W. E. Krueger, Druggist.

DODIER ST., 2242—G. H. Wagner, Prescription Druggist.

ELEVATOR ST., 4901 N.—O. Penrose—H.
W. Barthaer, Druggist.

FRANKLIN AV., 1600—O. Kihlstein, Druggist.

FRANKLIN AV., 3342—Brann's Pharmacy.

GAMBLE ST., 6531—Brann's Pharmacy.

HANSON ST., 2601—John J. Harris,
Druggist.

MARKEET ST., 2901—St. Louis Pharmacy Co.,
North Market St., 3522—H. W. De Temmley, Pharmacist.

OLIVE ST., 1500—Russell Ryler, Druggist.

OLIVE ST., 3000—C. E. S. Macdonald, Prescription Pharmacist.

OLIVE ST., 3500—Kirkebide & Roth, Druggist.

PARK AV., 1837—G. H. J. Andreas, Druggist.

SIDNEY ST., 2100—DuFour, Confectioners.

SALINA ST., 2870, Cor. Festaloupe—August F.
Krausser, Druggist.

WAHLST., 2300—Walnut Street Pharmacy.

WASHINGTON AV., 2328—Thos. G. Glenn,
Druggist.

EAST ST. LOUIS, op. Post Office—Oscar F.
Kress, Books, Newspapers, Fancy Goods,
etc.

BELLEVILLE, ILL.—(Chandler Building), Knerr and Stolberg.

ROCK SPRINGS.—(One block east of Cheltenham Station) Chas. Harris, P. D. carrier and dealer in periodicals.

It is for sale on all trains and Steamboats at St. Louis, and at the following,
not to other, leading points:

Birmingham, Ala.—Boiler News Dept., 2007

Second st.

Boston, Mass.—F. C. Herrick, Parker House.

Burlington, Kan.—Victor King, Post Office.

Corinth, Miss.—D. P. Scott.

Dayton, Ohio—J. A. Astor.

Chicago, Ill.—Palmer House, Sherman House, Leland House, Bretton & Bro., 101 N. State st.; Tremont House, Grand Pacific Hotel.

Cleveland, Ohio—Standard in Deposit.

Columbus, Ohio—Lyon & Shouse.

Columbus, O.—J. D. Hawley, 194 Vine st.

Cincinnati, Ohio—B. Hawley, 194 Vine st.

Canton, Miss.—J. G. Fellows.

Dallas, Texas—J. Jackson.

Denver, Colo.—B. Wright, 885 Larimer and 391

South C. V. Broache, 392 Lawrence st., and

J. J. Jameson, 1015 Larimer.

Evansville, Ind.—G. C. Smith & Co., 129 Main st.

El Paso, Tex.—Grand Central Hotel.

Ft. Smith, Ark.—C. A. Tills and T. Phillips & A.
Son.

Ft. Worth, Tex.—H. S. Knott.

Glens Falls—McGregor & Springer.

Hannibal, Mo.—N. V. Wolner, 211 Broadway.

Hastings, Neb.—Allen, Winch & Co., Post Office.

Hart Springs, Ark.—Hotels and News Stands.

Jackson, Miss.—E. C. Co.

Kansas City, Mo.—Union Depot News Stand; J. F.
Cleveland, 556 Cherry st.

Kenton, Tenn.—J. D. Graham.

Kokomo, Ind.—Lowry, 523 Main st.

Lake Minnetonka, Minn.—Hotel Lafayette.

Lafayette, Ind.—C. B. Gardner & Co., 600 Harrison st.

Louisville, Ky.—C. T. Dearing, corner Third and Jefferson.

Mammoth Hot Springs, Wyo.—Ter.—Yellowstone Park, Mammoth.

Memphis, Tenn.—R. M. Mansfield, 298 Main st.

Milan, Tenn.—W. W. Horne.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Niclette House News Stand

and J. W. Ayers, Post-Office News Stand.

Nashville, Tenn.—C. H. Christian.

Newark, N. J.—A. C. & Co., 5 Union Square,

Metropolitan Hotel, Windsor Hotel.

New Orleans, La.—F. C. Wharton & Bro., 5
Carondelet st.; Geo. Ells, opposite Post Office.

Oconomowoo, Wis.—Draper Hall.

Omaha, Neb.—Barney Bros., Union Depot, and

J. J. French, South Omaha.

Oregano, Kan.—B. Harrison and J. H. Bouler, Pilot Point, Texas.—J. B. Pondron.

Paris Christian, Miss.—J. E. Champis.

Palestine, Texas.—Louis Durie.

Princeton, Ind.—J. F. Quincy.

Quincy, Ill.—G. Spinola, 19 N. Sixth st.

San Francisco, Cal.—Scott's Bookstore, 22 Third st.; Baldwin Hotel News Stand, and Perry & Wilber, Palace Hotel.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y.—Congress Hall.

Spokane, Wash.—J. C. Thompson.

St. Paul, Minn.—J. S. Field, Metropolitan Hotel, and Cook & Sawders, Merchants' Hotel.

Taylor, Tex.—J. B. Pondron.

Tampa, Fla.—A. F. Hunt.

Union City, Tenn.—G. W. Griffin.

Van Buren, Ark.—James.

Vicksburg, Miss.—J. B. Hobson.

Vicksburg, Miss.—A. G. Tillman, next door to Post Office, and Clarke & Co., 149 Washington st.

Washington, D. C.—Brennan Bros., 1015 Pennsylvania av.; Willard's Hotel.

The Post-Dispatch is on file in Europe at American Exchange, 449 Strand, and 4, Gilling, 9
Strand, Charing Cross, London, Eng., and American Exchange, 35 Boulevard des Capucines, Paris, France.

The Post-Dispatch, with the largest circulation in the City of St. Louis, offers advertising in its Ward Column at lower rates than any other paper.

Situations Wanted, three lines for ten cents.

Help Wanted, Board, Boarders, House or
Room, wanted, five cents a line.

Death Notices, three lines for twenty-five cents.

Personal, ten cents a line.

Above rates are for solid copy. Full rates will be charged for display.

Advertisements for each day's issue must reach the office not later than 1 p. m.

Parties advertising in these Columns and having the answers addressed in care of POST-DISPATCH, will please ask for check, to enable them to get their letters, as none will be delivered except on presentation of check. All correspondence, however, should be inclosed in envelopes. Parties answering advertisements must have their replies directed to their own POST-OFFICE address.

All Want Ads. for Saturday publication, in order to be in time for classification, must be handed in by 12 m. on Saturday during the summer months.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED, Collector as collector or shipping clerk.

Address to this office.

The Trades.

WANTED, Skilled man, draughtsman and construction engineer, experienced in mill and mining work. Address G 10, this office.

Boys.

WANTED, Boy of 17, to take charge of house and make himself useful. $200 per m.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

The Trades.

WANTED, Good Barber. Apply 910 N. 6th st. 58

WANTED—A good carpenter. Apply 809 N. 6th st. 58

WANTED—Carpenters; inquire at 214 Pine

St., St. Louis.

WANTED—Six wrought iron workers. Apply 818

S. m. at 2008 Morgan st.

WANTED—A marble cutter. Apply to John G.

18, 210 S. Broad.

WANTED—A good plumber. Will First.

WANTED—A first-class cutter, for city trade. Application to 100 S. Washington.

WANTED—A fine young housekeeper. Address to 1247, this office.

WANTED—Good lodgings; single beds, 10 and 15 cents a day. Address 1247, this office.

WANTED—Daily dancing room. Call 1247, this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

this office.

WANTED—Man to attend to horse and grounds;

good driver, with city reference. Apply to 1247,

TABERNACLE TALK.

THE RELIGIOUS RESUME FOR THE PAST WEEK.

Plaza Bluff Camp-Meeting — A Probable New Presbyterian Pastor—Why Williams Went — Letters on San Jones — Sunday Subjects — Personal Points and Gospel Gossip.

While the Southern Methodists are employing their camp-meeting at Camp Marvin, the "Northern" Methodists are preparing for their meeting which comes off at Plaza Bluff next Saturday, August 10 to 17. The opening service will be held on the morning of the 10th, Rev. J. W. Phillips of the Alton District preaching the sermon. Rev. Dr. J. W. Vincil and other pastors not away summering will go up from St. Louis. There will be morning, afternoon and night services daily and on the Sunday a special programme. It is expected that Rev. Thomas, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will be present. The sermons of Rev. Dr. Rhodes at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church Sunday evenings are proving very interesting. Last Friday, despite the heat, the auditorium was filled with people who had never been to a church before.

Sullivan first went to Natick while he was a boy, two visits to that town his wife did not manage some months past he has attempted to interfere with them, apparently lost all interest in them. The author of the letter has given her relationship with her present circumstances as comfortable than those of the Rev. Mr. Sullivan, Jr., is now 27 months old and is a woman of fine physique, the world's champion has not been able to get him to attend. The first two months to get the infant to the breast again, though he has been secured by the hospital, the last two years he has been as rugged as any baby ever was, a man of the world, a little more than a month ago he was born in the dirt in all weatherings him wherever he is. He has his father's own temperament and quick and is quick to get the converts. Tents will be held on the morning of the 10th, Rev. Dr. Hurd, president of Blackburn University, Carlinville, Ill., is preaching every evening at the Grand Union Presbyterian Church during the pastor's absence.

Rev. E. M. Hennessy, C. M., formerly of St. Louis, is on his way to the mother house of the Congregationalists in Paris, and it is thought he will return to America.

The sermons of Rev. Dr. Rhodes at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church Sunday evenings are proving very interesting. Last Friday, despite the heat, the auditorium was filled with people who had never been to a church before.

Rev. W. W. Dowling, the Christian Sunday School teacher, the busiest workers in the vineyard, will vary his labors by preaching Sunday morning and evening for the Presbyterians.

The Young People's Christian Union of Plymouth Congregational Church will give a lawn party and social reunion at the residence of Rev. Dr. F. L. Glade Sunday morning.

Presiding Elder Corrington's next appointments for Methodist churches are: Preaching at St. Luke's Sunday morning and quarterly conference Sunday evening, and quarterly conference Monday.

Father Berndt, S. J., Vice-President of the St. Louis University, who went out to Florida several weeks ago for his health, has grown worse instead of better, and is now confined to his room. His recovery is being delayed.

The Central Baptist this week says: "While we believe that our tried pastors should be allowed to close their doors, we know that they should be closed, and we are glad to know that there will be services in every Baptist church in the city Sunday morning and quarterly conference.

Mr. Dunlap is right about S. A.'s preaching, but he makes a mistake in his public criticism. He may not care about his preaching errors, but when it comes to his personal life, he is right. Righteousness is frequently given a sudden shock by a newspaper criticism, as was evidenced by the recent trial of the Rev. Dr. C. Young at Chicago. In the same line with Mr. Dunlap, but much more effective is the article in the St. Louis Christian Advocate in this week's St. Louis Christian Advocate, organ of the same church, calling his attention to the young man's many sins, and to the tobacco and whisky habits.

PLEASED WITH A PREACHER.

Rev. E. N. Barrett of Waterloo, Io., who has been visiting the Presbyterian pulpits the last week or two, has made an impression in this city that would easily grow into a pastorate here. He is understood to be on his way to the West End. It is understood he came on the invitation of several ministers who believed he was a man of great ability and character. He has greatly pleased the people of the Glasgow Avenue Church to whom he preached last Sunday night, and himself qualified to fill the pulpit however much this little church wants him. It is not easy to satisfy this desire of the community, particularly a formal one, of the North Presbyterian Church went to hear him last Sabbath. He is a man of great ability and personal magnetism, and possessed of that ability which makes a man what is colloquially called a "pusher." He is well known for his oratorical powers in Chicago before going to Waterloo. His wife is a lady who stands high in the eyes of the church, but provided by the Woman's Board of the Missions of Iowa. The Presbyterians of the city, who have met Mr. Barrett, are inclined to believe that his stay here would add strength to Presbyterianism in St. Louis.

RAILWAY Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

There will be a meeting of song this evening at the East St. Louis Railway Y. M. C. A. Rev. William L. Johnston will address the meeting.

W. B. Wansley will deliver a gospel sermon address at the East St. Louis Railway Y. M. C. A. at 7 o'clock. Mr. Chess Birch will lead the music and give vocal and concert selections.

The Rev. Dr. Henry Y. M. C. A. September suspended their meetings until September 15, when the following subject will be discussed: "The Relation of the M. A. to the Army." It is Better than a Republican Form of Government.

The East St. Louis Railway Y. M. C. A. added twenty-four new members to their last meeting.

CHASES IN CHURCHES.

It is reported that a chase is rolling its gaping mouth in another Episcopal church.

The opposition in St. George's, which recently in the Diocese of New York, could not heal the wounds even by recalling the old pastor, Dr. Holman, and the vestrymen were scattering about in search of a more congenial place, some going to Trinity, Holy Cross, and others.

When the Post-Dispatch first announced some time ago that the Asheconites intended to bolt St. Peter's, form a new parish, and bring back their beloved rector, there was some quiet talk around the town that the "candy" which could not believe that the other side would surrender a fine church in a tiff. The reason that the Asheconites can find no rest in this city is that they are in conflict with my family. He considered his parishioners with paternal love, hence their deep attachment to him.

President of the old standing committee, addressed Mr. Richard Colpton as Senior Warden, which was taken by the rector, who was then asked if he was the beloved rector, there was some quiet talk around the town that the "candy" which could not believe that the other side would surrender a fine church in a tiff.

The St. Louis Christian Advocate, Southern Methodist organ, prints this reminiscence of the Pilgrim Congregational Church and addressed to the old pastor:

"Soon after his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification, at some distance, by moonlight, giving day and hour.

Officer witnesses under such circumstances. Some of the police are frequently in court to see that the old pastor is not disturbed in his retirement and the discontinuance of the proceedings, and notwithstanding a falsehood often, I know of one case in which J. C. McRae appeared in court to defend the old pastor, and swore positively to an identification,

ICE Perfectly CREAM
Pure. BOWMAN & CO., 516 and 520 Morgan St. Telephone No. 8,122.

CITY NEWS.

BUSY as bees yesterday was every one at the Great Broadway Bazaar. D. Crawford & Co. propose to get rid of every ounce of summer goods, no matter what the loss. Visit their stores.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
622 Olive street. Set of teeth, $8.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsber, 514 Pine street.

DR. WHITIE, 617 St. Charles street, cures diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences. Call or write.

THE "GOLDEN GOOSE."

The Opera Make a Fine Impression Despite Adverse Circumstances.

The performance of Adrián's opera, the "Golden Goose," by the Thompson company last night at the Cave was severely handicapped by the most adverse conditions that a company could struggle under, excepting the absence of good nature. There was plenty of that both among the actors and the audience.

The overture had just commenced when the rain began to fall about 8:30 o'clock. The audience moved from the garden into the hall, and there was a general discussion on the cause and explaining the difficulty of giving the opera without the scenery and accessories that were wanted. The audience waited to see if the rain ceased or would accept one of the simpler or more modest scenes. It did not cease to wait. After another selection by Vogel's orchestra, the audience again went to the garden, but at about 9:30 the performance was launched for a third time. The audience could not form an idea of the scene, due to the darkness, but the scene in libretto and music, as the cramped piano-box stage wrecked the business of the chorus and cast, and the miseries of the audience in the hall added to the mortification for the vocalists.

The action of the opera, despite the plot of a man who desires to effect the union of her nephew, Count Andre, and the beloved daughter of a French Ambassador. This is the prospective heiress of the inn of the "Golden Goose." She is the girl who is to be won, so that the misfortune would result in the Count's losing his estate and the fair one that he had refused to marry. The girl was discovered in the lobby by Gavandau, a comedy cook, and the happy pair are married.

Miss Dora Wiley, as the gamekeeper's daughter, made a decided success and was frequently encoraged. Mr. Matt Woodward had a fine voice and was a credit to the audience. Wolff, as Gavandau, made the most of the part, as Henry Stanislawski was unable to do it. It is believed that Miss Harvey was particularly good. Miss Hattie Staudt and Miss Amy Harvey did not receive the same ovation as the others. The minor roles were taken by Henry Roe, Agnes Evans, May Stanislaw and Jennie Bogart.

Not to a good company, nothing contributes so much to the success of a performance as the proper scenery and stage effects. These were wanting, and it is to the lack of these that was added the dreary and gloomy atmosphere that surrounded the unfortunate circumstances above mentioned. The belief is to say that the opera will not be given again under such conditions, made a pleasing impression is the most lavish praise. The music is Adrián's best, and the lyrics, though in a simple libretto, as adapted by Mr. Matt Woodward, is bright and spicy. The opera will be given until further notice.

THE FISTER TRAGEDY.

Young Mrs. Barton's Confession Proves to Be False.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.
New York, August 4.—Florence Mary Barton, the 12-year-old wife who described how she killed Fred Pfister while defending her honor as told in yesterday's Post-Dispatch, was made to repeat her story yesterday to the police who were not convinced of that she was telling the truth. She was arraigned before Justice Kenne in the morning and by the advice of counsel pleaded not guilty to the charge of manslaughter. She was returned to the state prison. It was learned that she is not the girl that she was supposed to be. On the night of the murder she met Pfister as she sat in her room in the apartment, and went with him to the lots of the station, and what happened there is very difficult to say. She had been confined to some of her friends that Pfister and she were in a compromising position when two other men appeared and struck Pfister, who became unconscious. She ran away and was followed by the two men who caught her, and she promised to say that she had been compelled to kill Pfister and should be arrested. The confession which the girl made is the result of this arrangement. After learning these facts the Post-Dispatch reporter went to the station-house. Florence was there being led by the police, who had taken her up. She was dressed very prettily in a light gray dress, showing a white lace shirt front on her bosom, and a brooch hanging down a white satin cravat. In her hand she carried a small hat. Her usual features depicted in her face, brown eyes were swollen from crying. The secret of her step into the private room she realized that she was past through the ordeal.

THE CRIMES.
Three crimes embraced in this treatise are as follows:
1. Murder, assault with intent to commit murder.
2. Counterfeiting, or altering money or uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money; counterfeiting or uttering forged documents, bank notes, or other instruments of public credit or circulation, the same.

ARTICLE I. The high contracting parties entitle to deliver up to each other under the circumstances of the present convention, all persons to be accused or convicted of one of the crimes or offenses named in the following articles, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of the court in which the offense was committed.

ARTICLE II. The high contracting parties entitle to deliver up to each other under the circumstances of the present convention, all persons to be accused or convicted of one of the crimes or offenses named in the following articles, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of the court in which the offense was committed.

ARTICLE III. If the person demanded be held for trial in the country in which the demand is made, it shall be optional with the latter to grant extradition, and the trial shall be provided, that unless the trial shall be for the crime for which the fugitive is claimed, the demand for trial shall be rejected.

ARTICLE IV. If it be made to appear that the demand is made with a view to try or punish the person demanded for an offense of a political character, surrender shall not take place, and any person surrendered be tried or punished for the same offense committed previous to his extradition.

ARTICLE V. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE VI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE VII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE VIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE IX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE X. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XXXIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XL. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLV. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLVIII. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLIX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLX. The trial of the fugitive shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the demanding party, or in the event of absence of these, by superior consular officers.

ARTICLE XLXI. The trial of the fugitive shall be made